

Her Subsequent Action.

The Widow (over the back fence)—So you was over to Allegash yisterdy? Any news there?

The Clam Peddler—Wa-al, Lucy Ann Pine—you know her, I guess—was settin' alone in the dark, one evenin' about two weeks ago, when a strange man slipped into the house an' grabbed her an' forcibly kissed her.

The Widow—I want to know! The Clam Peddler—Yes'm; an' they do say that she ain't had a light in the house sence.—Judge.

Love in the Kitchen.

I've a kiss for the cook.
"Sh! Don't give it away,
There is no one to look—
I've a kiss for the cook;
You see Bridget forsook
Us. Wife's cooking to-day.
I've a kiss for the cook—
"Sh! Don't give it away.
—Philadelphia Press.

GOING HOME TO MOTHER.

"You'll have to get an alarm clock."
"What for?"
"To make these biscuits rise."—Chicago Inter Ocean.

In the Gloaming.

The sweet summer maid and the youth fell out.
And this was the reason why:
They had nothing on earth to quarrel about.
But he swung the hammock too high.
—Chicago Record.

Heartless Indifference.

Young Wife—O, mamma! Clarence is growing heartlessly indifferent to me already!
Her Mother—What has he said or done?
Young Wife—Why, when I asked him where he preferred me to go this summer he said he had no preference, because he knew I'd go just where I wanted to, anyway!—Puck.

Quiet.

"In my opinion," he said, "women ought to remove their hats in church the same as they do in theaters."
"How," she asked, "do you know that they don't?"
It was at this time that the wild, muffled look got into his eyes.—Chicago Times-Herald.

Equal to the Occasion.

Miss Jones—Professor, do you dare to look me in the face and say that I originally sprang from a monkey?
Professor (a little taken aback, but equal to the occasion)—Well, really, it must have been a very charming monkey.—Tit-Bits.

A Suggestion.

That Nature gives hints to her children is plain.
This fact in your hat you may paste;
Let summer girls go where an arm of the sea
Forever encircles a waste.
—Puck.

AND THEN HE PROPOSED.

He—A penny for your thoughts.
She—I dare not tell them.
He—Why not?
She—This is not leap year.—Sondage's Wise.

Inequality.

The orator's charms the crowd;
He's talking—men adore it.
The auctioneer talks just as loud
And gets no notice for it.
—Washington Star.

Realistic Reporter.

City Editor—How did that deaf and dumb wedding come off?
Reporter—Quietly. — Baltimore American.

Double Rackets.

"There seems to be smiles all over your face this morning."
"No wonder! There's a new baby down at our house."

If a!

"And a new piano."
"Well, you'll get precious little rest in the future."
"Don't you believe it! The baby makes such a racket you can't hear the piano; the piano makes such a racket you can't hear the baby."—Chicago Daily News.

At Large.

"Do you mean to tell me that that man-eating lion of yours got loose and wandered out into the streets!"
"Yes," answered the proprietor of the show; "and a lot of trouble he made us."
"Did you have any difficulty in catching him?"
"I should say so! It was hours before we could get near enough to lead him back to his cage. You see, some of the bad boys of the town had tied a tin can to his tail."—Washington Star.

Memory.

"I suppose you find a good memory of great assistance in your work?"
"No, sir," said Senator Sorghum. "Remembering is all well enough in its way, but a good forgetter, who can change his opinions on short notice and not worry over promises is the man who gets on best in my part of the state."—Washington Star.

Bonds of Sympathy.

Mrs. Ollabout—I thought you and Mrs. Sellom-Holme were hardly on speaking terms, but I saw you talking with her last evening in the friendliest manner imaginable.
Mrs. Gotfrequent—Yes, I found out she's been having the same kind of trouble with her hired girl that I've had with mine.—Chicago Tribune.

Compliments of the Season.

Now the crabtree in the sand
Lurks beneath the waters blue,
And extends the gladsome hand
To the laughing bathers, who
Unsuspecting of his fell,
Wicked purpose, gayly pose,
Till a loud and piercing yell
Tells us he has pinched their toes.
—N. Y. World.

BEYOND HIS COMPREHENSION.

Grogg (who has been pressed into acting as nurse for half an hour)—Most 'stonishing thing this child should keep on crying for milk—specially when there's whisky in the house!—Ally Sloper.

Not Always Thus.

They called her Rose,
And this but shows
Why names should all go whistle:
The man who got
Her claims she's not
A sweet Rose, but a thistle.
—Chicago Times-Herald.

Marked Down.

Bachelor—But I can't see much in the girl you pointed out to me. She is so insignificantly small.
Cheerful Matchmaker—Precisely. That's why she happens to be available—a remnant.—N. Y. World.

His New Line.

Dopes—I hear D'Auber's dropped his work in oils and taken to black and white?
Ropes—Yes, he's addressing envelopes for a patent medicine firm.—Town Topics.

Effective Energy.

"Joppo, you make nice, fine garden beds."
"Yes, when my wife sets me to digging I'm mad enough to pulverize everything that comes in my way."—Detroit Free Press.

Well Posted.

"Does he know much about the firm's business?"
"Know much! Well, say! the office boy actually doesn't consider himself any better posted."—Chicago Post.

Where It Came From.

"Thou art so near, and yet so far!"
"As old as ancient Rome!"
"Came first from one, who, nearly broke,
Was far away from home."
—Radford Review.

SETTLED DOWN TO A BOYCOTT.

Outcome of the Struggle Between the St. Louis Transit Co. and Its Old Employees.

St. Louis, June 18.—The long-drawn-out controversy between the St. Louis Transit Co. and its striking employees has now simmered down into a struggle between capital and labor along the lines of a boycott. The submitting of the question of the reinstatement of the former employees of the company to arbitration has been the bone of contention in the recent negotiations for a settlement of the strike, but, like all former contentions, it has resulted in nothing, the railway officials demanding an unconditional surrender on the part of the men.

As a result of the company's action, President Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, has declared that he will do all in his power to bring the influence of the whole body of organized labor in America to bear upon the local situation in an effort to win the strike for the union. Mr. Gompers urges the strikers to be law-abiding. The boycott to be declared, strike leaders say, will apply not only to the St. Louis Transit Co., but to every person, every business man, every association and, in fact, any corporation or individual favoring it in any way.

Some trouble was experienced on the Page avenue division of the Transit Co. As a car was passing the corner of Page and Taylor avenues it exploded a dynamite cartridge. Both of the front wheels were shattered, all of the windows in the car broken, and the motorman was thrown violently from his position to the street. He was bruised about the body, but not seriously injured. The passengers on the car escaped injury.

Dynamite was more freely used than on any day since the strike was inaugurated. In addition to the wrecking of a car on the Page avenue division four other cars were wrecked last night in various parts of the city but no one was seriously injured. A car on the Baden division had its truck shattered, the floor ripped up and the roof torn off.

Mrs. Eva Doman was roughly handled by a mob at Marion street and Broadway. As she alighted from a transit car she was quickly surrounded by a mob of girls, who shouted "scab" at her. A large throng soon joined the girls. Mrs. Doman ran down several streets, with the mob in hot pursuit and sought refuge in Joseph A. Bene's saloon in South Broadway, but Bene pushed the woman back into the street. A woman living over the saloon succeeded in getting Mrs. Doman to her apartments but not before both had been pelted with mud and stones. Mrs. Doman was escorted home by a police officer. The police arrested Bene charging him with assault and battery.

Chief of Detectives Desmond sent a dozen of his men to the neighborhood of Broadway and Marion streets to lay wait for other crowds that might attack women. An hour later two detectives were sent to the locality with a woman as a decoy. As soon as the woman stepped off the car she was surrounded by a crowd. The detectives used their clubs, doing much damage to the heads of those in the mob. The crowd broke and ran. The police did not attempt to arrest any of the mob as they had not committed themselves.

FIGHTING IN THE PHILIPPINES

The United States Forces Had Two Engagements of Importance Last Week.

Manila, June 18.—The United States forces had two engagements of importance last week. The troops under Gen. Funston and Gen. Grant organized an advance with parts of five regiments and two guns against 500 rebels in a mountain stronghold east of Biacabata, where it was supposed Capt. Roberts, of the 35th regiment, who was captured last month at San Miguel de Mayumo, was held captive. The Americans operated under many difficulties and over an exceedingly rough country, but the rebels retreated, only a few resisting, and their stronghold was occupied and burned.

As a result of last week's scouting, 60 Filipinos were killed, 200 were captured, and 300 rifles, with 23,000 rounds of ammunition, were surrendered. Three Americans were killed. Malaria fever has been prevalent since April in parts of Cavite and Batangas provinces, which are garrisoned by the 46th and 39th regiments. Thirty per cent. of the men of the regiment are on the sick list. Of two battalions in Batangas province, one has 150 sick and the other 140.

Finally Came to Grief.

Nashville, Tenn., June 17.—P. B. Sullivan, the insurance fraud, who operated through middle and west Tennessee, collecting money on bogus policies, was convicted, fined and sentenced to serve 30 days in jail. Sullivan collected several hundred dollars in southern Kentucky and in Missouri. He was arrested in two Kentucky towns, but managed to evade the law.

Philippine Commission at Work. Manila, June 18.—Judge Taft and his colleagues of the civil commission are studying the different legislative phases of the situation preparatory to the work of enacting new laws on September 1, when they assume legislative power.

Croaker Had Nothing to Say.

Queenstown, June 18.—Richard Croaker, who is a passenger on the Cunard line steamer Lucania outward bound, when asked to discuss the ice trust situation in New York replied that he had nothing to say.

MRS. GLADSTONE DEAD.

The Widow of William E. Gladstone, the English Statesman, Passes Peacefully Away.

London, June 15.—Mrs. Gladstone, widow of William E. Gladstone, the noted English statesman, died at her home, Hawarden, at 5:40 Thursday evening. She had been unconscious for about 72 hours and died without recovering consciousness.

The news was immediately conveyed to the queen, the prince of Wales, the dean of Westminster, the dean of Lincoln, Sir William Vernon Harcourt, Sir Henry Campbell Bannerman, Arthur J. Balfour and others. In the course of the evening William Gladstone, heir to Hawarden, arrived from Eton, shortly followed by two sisters from London. The bells of Hawarden church rang muffled peals.

By courtesy of the dean of Westminster, and in accordance with arrangements made in 1898, the funeral will be held in the Abbey. The interment probably will take place on June 19, being of as private a character as possible.

Mrs. Gladstone was married to William E. Gladstone in 1839, 61 years ago. Her maiden name was Miss Catherine Glynnne. She was the daughter of Sir Stephen R. Glynnne, of Hawarden castle, Flintshire.

DECIDING CONTESTS.

The Republican National Committee Kept Busy Preparatory to the Coming Convention.

Philadelphia, June 15.—Practically the entire day was devoted to the Louisiana contest by the republican national committee, and the controversy was finally decided in favor of what is known as the Warmouth faction.

The contest from the First Georgia district was decided in favor of the Deveaux delegation.

The District of Columbia contest was settled in favor of J. E. Jones and W. C. Chase and against Dr. Robert Keyburn and George W. Lee, the latter a colored preacher.

PLAYED WITH THE GIRLS.

Five Students Expelled From the University of Tennessee—They Will Appeal.

Knoxville, Tenn., June 15.—Five students of the University of Tennessee were given notice of expulsion. Their offense consisted of connection with the management of playing a game of baseball with the Chicago "Bloomer Girls" team in this city. Notice had previously been given that participation in this game would be followed by serious consequences. The students may appeal to the trustees, who meet next Monday. Two of them were candidates for graduation next week.

Shaw on Confederate Flag.

Davenport, Ia., June 15.—One of the features of the annual encampment of the G. A. R. of Iowa was the address by National Commander A. D. Shaw, in which he declared himself on the return of confederate battle flags. Commander Shaw and the majority of soldiers believed the time was not ripe for such action; that the banner that was furlled at Appomattox represented a dead past and should not be brought to view again in this generation.

Eight Lives Lost in a Fire.

New York, June 15.—Fire in a tenement house at 34 Jackson street at 3 o'clock this morning caused the death of eight persons. The dead are Daniel Miller, Daniel Marmon, Mrs. Mary Marmon, Mamie Marmon, aged 18; Albert A. Marmon, aged 15; another son, aged 13; Elsie Marmon, aged 7; Emma Marmon, aged 4, and Antoinette Marmon, aged 8 months. The Marmons were all of one family.

The Committee Named.

Minneapolis, June 15.—P. M. Ringdal, temporary chairman of the Sioux Falls populist convention, has named the committee to notify Charles A. Towne of his nomination for vice-president. Among the members are J. H. (Cyclone) Davis, Texas; J. M. McGabick, Virginia; W. R. Sattell, Missouri; and Thomas A. Pettit, Kentucky. The committee is to meet in Kansas City, July 4.

Three Killed by a Train.

Hutchinson, Kan., June 15.—A Santa Fe freight train ran into and demolished a street car at the Main street crossing here Thursday, killing three persons, Mrs. J. S. Patton, Mrs. Wm. Burth and Mrs. George Kown. Mrs. Patton's body was cut in two. Mrs. Kown was dragged from the wreck by her husband and died in his arms. Kown was badly injured, but will recover.

Kennedy Must Die.

New York, June 15.—Dr. Samuel J. Kennedy must die for the murder of Dollie Reynolds in the Grand hotel in August, 1898. Justice Fursman, in the criminal branch of the supreme court, denied the application of his lawyers for a new trial.

Legalizing Foreign Money.

New Orleans, June 15.—News was received here that President Iglesias of Costa Rica, had sent to congress a decree making legal the circulation in that country of the money of the United States; also the gold coin of England, France and Germany.

Jamaica Borrowing Money.

Kingston, Jamaica, June 15.—The condition of the island's finances is so bad that a law was passed authorizing the government to borrow $750,000 from the imperial treasury at 2 1/2 per cent. to meet the deficits.

DOUBLE TRAGEDY.

Thomas Bach, Aged 50, Shot and Killed His Adopted Daughter and Then Kills Himself.

Louisville, Ky., June 15.—Moved by strange jealousy of an adopted daughter, Thomas Bach, aged 50, shot and killed 18-year-old Mollie Bach because she was secretly married four weeks ago to Newt Thorne. The tragedy occurred at the Bach farm, 11 miles from Louisville, on the Taylorsville pike. Mollie Bach was adopted 12 years ago by the Bach family and given their name. Thomas Bach, although he is a married man, was intensely jealous of the girl, and he had told her, it is said, that he would kill her if she ever married.

Yesterday she showed him the license for her marriage to Thorne, which occurred four weeks ago and had been kept a secret. Bach immediately grabbed a pistol and started for the girl. She darted through the front door of the house, but he caught her and shot her three times in the back. Pursuing her into the yard, he shot her in the left side. The girl fell to the ground, and Bach put the pistol to her temple and shot her again. With the last bullet in the pistol he shot himself near the heart. As he lay on the ground he reloaded the pistol, crawled over the girl's body and shot himself again. Notwithstanding the terrible wounds Bach and the girl received, they lived a few minutes, but were dead before a physician could reach them.

Newt Thorne, whom the young girl married, is a young farmer of the neighborhood.

BUILDING MONUMENTS.

A Pennsylvanian is Expending a Fortune of $100,000 in Improving Lafayette Cemetery.

Westchester, Pa., June 15.—In order to preclude the possibility of a contest over his will after he is dead, John G. Taylor, of this place, is now engaged in expending a fortune of $100,000 in monuments. Mr. Taylor's avowed purpose is to use all his money in improving Lafayette cemetery, on the heights of Brandywine battlefield, a short distance from the spot where Gen. Lafayette fell, wounded in battle. The bodies of Taylor's father, mother, sister, wife and child are buried there. Quietly and without ceremony Mr. Taylor Wednesday unveiled his fourth monument. The shaft is of white enameled brick, containing a niche, in which there is a life-size figure of Christ in marble. The statue was made in Carrara, Italy.

Near this pile, Mr. Taylor has completed the base of a $25,000 monument commemorating of Gen. Lafayette.

TWO TRAINS COLLIDE.

The Engineer and Flagman Were Killed and a Number of Other Trainmen Were Injured.

Atlanta, Ga., June 15.—A north-bound passenger train and an incoming accommodation train on the Southern railway collided ten miles from Atlanta.

The killed are: Reuben R. Mayfield, engineer; William Davis, flagman.

The injured: William Nash, baggage-man; J. H. Gregory, baggage-man; R. C. White, trainman; J. E. Bond, trainman; S. Gilmer, trainman; W. H. Sharp, trainman; Reuben Waters, flagman; Wm. Haney, fireman.

Shot Dead From Ambush.

Dallas, Tex., June 15.—Henson Williams and his son William, colored, were shot dead from ambush in Brazos county while plowing in a field. Officers are searching for a white man who is believed to have shot them. The elder Williams fought through the civil war as a confederate soldier and made such a good record that he was a full member of the confederate veterans' camp at Millican. The old white confederate soldiers are enraged at the assassination and threaten vengeance on the assassin when captured.

Hundreds of Marriages Not Legal.

San Francisco, June 15.—Judge Belcher filed an opinion holding that marriages of persons divorced in this state consummated within 12 months after the decree of divorce has been made are invalid, and that in the eyes of the law such persons are unmarried persons. The opinion will be a blow to hundreds of California couples who have married at Reno, Nev., within the past two years under the belief that a marriage outside of this state nullified the law.

Another Battle With Ashantis.

London, June 15.—The Daily Express has the following dispatch from Prashu: "There has been another fight on the line of communications of the Coomassie relief expedition. No details have been officially supplied. There are 10,000 Ashantis surrounding Coomassie and 5,000 facing the relief force. The leaders of the rebellion include Ashantuah, queen of Ofesu."

Exploring Expedition.

Copenhagen, June 15.—The Norwegian steamer Antarctic, with the Danish East Greenland expedition committee, commanded by Lieut. Amstrup, sailed Thursday morning to explore the coast between Cape Brewster and Agassand.

Aged Man Found Drowned.

New Orleans, La., June 15.—Charles Peyton, an aged citizen was found drowned Thursday. A canvas belt was found about the body, filled with lead and iron, showing that he had committed suicide.
